GUIDE TO OUTSOURCING

Outsourcing means to contract out /transfer a business function to someone outside the business involving the transfer of people, processes and assets.

“While outsourcing is not necessarily right for all companies in all situations, it has significant economic advantages when done right and even does the society, at large, a huge benefit.”

Resource Intermediaries Limited is a wholly indigenous company registered to engage in Human Resource Outsourcing, Consulting and Business Process Outsourcing services. The company has been in business since 2006 with a clientele spread all over Nigeria, Ghana and Kenya. Our approach is to leverage our knowledge in responding to Client’s business needs flexibly. With growing Clientele, our customers continue to gain tangible market advantages in three specific areas; rapid deployment of our systems and personnels, ultimately lower operating and transaction costs, and superior business management.
